ANTHROPOLOGY AND CULTURE CHANGE

FEE: $80

As the evolution of culture accelerates, what might we expect and how might we adapt to unforeseen developments? The ancient Mayans predicted the year 2012 would hold special significance for humankind. How do the observations and predictions of today's prominent thinkers compare with Mayan prophecy? Join Lance Lindquist, instructor of anthropology, to consider whether our human journey will effectively end on December 21, 2012, or if this date will mark the beginning of an era of new possibilities for humankind.
