September 8

THE CREATION OF MY FAIR LADY

Join Emeritus favorite Charles Troy on a "lovely" tour through the creation of one of the most beloved musicals from the golden age of stage and screen, My Fair Lady.

September 15

GREAT PALACES OF THE WORLD

To paraphrase a famous comedian, it's good to be the king – or the duke, prince, nabob, or tsar. They get to live in the biggest houses. Due to wars, revolutions, and social change, many of the world's major palaces are now museums, monuments, or even grand hotels. Join art historian Claire Copping Cross for a tour of some of the great palaces of the world.

September 22

THE LEADERSHIP OF GEORGE WASHINGTON AND ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Join historian and Emeritus favorite Bill Haase as he compares and contrasts the leadership styles of Presidents George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Almost all historians have evaluated these two men as the most respected of all the presidents of the United States.

September 29

VICTORIAN LONDON: POPULAR ENTERTAINMENT

Join anglophile Linda Putnam for an introduction to the music halls, penny gaffs, pleasure gardens, street performers, waxworks, and other forms of entertainment found in 19th century London. Not all of the entertainment was quite so "quaint," however, as you'll see by Putnam's further knowledge of the era's gin palaces, opium dens, and brothels.

October 6

PRESIDENT BARRACK OBAMA AND FOREIGN POLICY

Join Julie Strauss, Ph.D., for a discussion of the foreign policy challenges inherited by President Obama. We'll cover the Middle East, Afghanistan, Pakistan, and Africa, and touch on global warming, energy crises, poverty, famine, fresh water wars, and more.

October 13

MOVERS AND SHAKERS

Architectural historian Hy Speck embarks on a tour of Chicago, and shows through photos and commentary how "movers and shakers" have impacted the city's amazing skyline.
