ART AND THE GARDENERFEE: $37

Celebrated garden designer Gordon Hayward will explore the visual language shared by painters and garden designers in this illustrated lecture. By juxtaposing a painting and a garden image on the screen, Hayward explores the many commonalities between how the painter and garden designer construct their images. For example, he places Childe Hassam's In the Garden next to an image from his own garden in Vermont to illustrate an impressionist garden passage. He also explores romanticism, abstract expressionism, cubism, and other visual styles. Hayward's new book, Art and the Gardener, will be available for sale and signing.
