

SPRING 2010 PLACEMENT TEST SCHEDULE

New students must submit an Oakton Community College application to the Office of Admission before testing.

No appointment is necessary, but seating is limited. Bring a pen and pencil.

You will need a photo I.D. and an Oakton I.D. number to take tests.

Test results are valid for two years.

MATH

The Math placement test is untimed and given in a computer lab. You may start a test any time during the first hour listed below, as computers become available. Allow one hour.

You will receive your results when you complete the test.

ENGLISH

Tests will begin promptly at the times listed and last about two hours. You may pick up your English test results in the Advising and Counseling Center: Des Plaines, Room 1130 or Skokie, Room A105 after 11 a.m. on the dates listed in the results column. Results will not be given over the phone, but can be retrieved from your MyOakton account.

Testing before these dates is by appointment only.
