

RAIDER WRITING MONTH 2012

Workshops and Write-Ins
Oakton Community College

WORKSHOP #2: FIND YOUR MUSE. FIND YOUR STORY.

Tu 10/16: 1:30 to 2:15 PM, Oakton Community College Library Classroom 2418

Nervous about whether you'll actually be able to write a 50,000-word novel in just one month's time? This workshop will focus on ways to help you discover your muse, the inspiration you'll need to sit down and write, write, write. This workshop will also help you iron out some of the larger aspects of your story so you can sit down on November 1st with some semblance of an idea of what you plan to write. Remember, you cannot actually begin writing your novel before November 1st, but you can do a bit of planning.

Where to Look

Inspiration By Proxy

Your Personal Dos and Don'ts

What You Should be Doing This Week

Help! November is Two Weeks Away and I Have No Idea What to Write About!

And . . . I STILL Don't Know What to Write! SOS! HELP! SAVE ME!

Discover Your World

We Hope to See You Next Week!

Workshop #3: Cruising for Characters

Tuesday, October 23, 1:30 – 2:15 PM

Library Classroom 2418, Des Plaines Campus

This workshop takes a spin on a chapter from Chris Baty's book, No Plot? No Problem! Take this opportunity to think about your characters and take them out for a test drive. As always, there will be snacks. ☺

We look forward to seeing you there!