

Asian Pacific Heritage Month May 2007

Pursuing Excellence Through Leadership, Diversity and Unity

How to Improve Your Credit Score/Mechanics of Mortgage Financing.

So you've bought a home or are planning to buy a home. When is it best to refinance? How do you put yourself in a good position to buy your dream home? What is FICO? Please join us on Wednesday, May 9th, 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM, 12th Floor, Lake Michigan Room to take the perplexity out of mortgage financing.

Career Development Panel. Are you at work thinking: "I want to get more out of my career. Am I on the right path for success and fulfillment?" Hear from a panel of experienced managers to guide you when you attend the Career Development Panel Discussion sponsored by the US Environmental Protection Agency and the National Association of Asian American Professionals. The discussion will include USEPA's Job Fair. David Lum of Motorola and managers from various federal agencies, including USEPA, will be sharing their insight in this brown bag lunch event. Tuesday, May 22nd, 2007, noon to 1 PM 12th Floor, Lake Michigan Room

Keynote Speaker and Luncheon Event. Don't miss our keynote and luncheon speakers, Ravi Baichwal & Jimmy Lee, followed by cultural dances and luncheon event. Ravi's journalism career started in Canada and he is now the weekend news anchor and reporter for Chicago's ABC7 News. He has covered stories on the terrorist attacks on the London Underground system, the discovery of former Iraq president Saddam Hussein by U.S. soldiers, and the death of Pope John Paul II.

Jimmy has dedicated his career in promoting and advancing Asian Americans in a variety of notable positions. Today, he is the Managing Director for the US Asian Business Council, a public policy organization committed to advocating for the advancement of Asian Pacific American entrepreneurs and businesses in the United States and abroad.

Please join us for this special event.
