

Lead Junk

(Parody lyrics by Bill Tong - sung to the tune of "Dead Skunk" by Loudon Wainwright III)

D
The fly dumpers come out late at night
G D
We should have looked left and we should have looked right
A7
We didn't know that they would go so far
G D
The waste got dumped and there you are

Chorus:

D A7
You see the lead junk in the middle of the field
G D
Lead junk in the middle of the field
A7
Lead junk in the middle of the field
G D
Stinking to high heaven

D A7
Take a whiff - watch out! - you'll burn your nose
G D
Breathe from a tank, and through a hose
A7
If you try to look, there's not much to see
G D
Except the smoke belching from an old factory

Chorus:

D A7
You see the lead junk in the middle of the field
G D
Lead junk in the middle of the field
A7
Lead junk in the middle of the field
G D
Stinking to high heaven (Man, it stinks!)

(Instrumental solo)

The high part:

D A7
Well you got leaky landfills, you got PCB
G D
Some old sewer pipes are toxic as can be
A7
Got your dead critters, and your deformed fish
G D
Stopping polluters really is our wish

Chorus:

D A7
You see the... lead junk... in the middle...
G D
Lead junk in the middle of the field
A7
Lead junk in the middle of the field
G D
Stinking to high heaven (Hold your nose, it stinks!)
