

Women's Festival of the Arts

Symbolism, Myth and Ritual

A Juried Exhibition of Art by Women

October 30 - November 9

Koehnline Museum of Art

Free public reception with refreshments, 5 - 8 p.m., Tuesday, October 30.

Territory

Thursday, November 1, at 9:30 a.m.

Koehnline Museum of Art

Performance artists Carol Ng and AJ Viola Julie Downey explore the links between presence and absence, and alienation and familiarity.

Tragedy to Triumph: The Story of Artemisia

Thursday, November 8, at 7 p.m.

Performing Arts Center

Singer-songwriter Linda M. Smith's multimedia performance based on the life of 17th century Italian painter, Artemisia Gentileschi.

East Meets West

Tuesday, November 6, at 12 p.m.

Cafeteria

The S.I.M.Z. (Super Intelligent Micro Zombies) dance troupe offers a program of classical and contemporary Indian choreography, directed by Sameksha "Simi" Khurana.

Presented by the Oakton Women's Studies Program. For more information, call 847.376.7061.

Special thanks to our generous sponsor, NationalCity

