In Bosnia circa 1992, two soldiers in two different kitchens try to recover some of what they’ve lost during the war. A Serbian paramilitary officer faces the consequences of his own brutality, while a Bosnian resistance fighter, crippled by the limits of his own courage, seeks refuge with a kindred soul. This emotionally-charged play explores the disastrous effects of conflict, not just on nations, but on each of us as individuals.

Roles: Seeking six cast members: three males, age 20s to 30s; one female, late 20s to 30s; one petite female in her 60s; and one 12-year-old girl. Please prepare a contemporary dramatic monologue (1-2 minutes in length; need not be memorized). Cold readings from the script also will be heard.

AUDITIONS:

Tuesday, September 1, 2009, 6 - 9 p.m.
Wednesday, September 2, 2009, 6 - 9 p.m.
(no appointment is necessary)

Oakton Community College, Des Plaines campus, Studio One Theater (enter from Parking Lot A)

Performance Dates: October 15 – 25, 2009

For more information, call 847.635.1897.
Oakton Community College, 1600 E. Golf Road, Des Plaines, IL