

Administrative Withdrawal Appeal Request

Students and former students who could not complete coursework due to unusual circumstances may appeal for an administrative withdrawal from a course(s) up to two years after the College's official withdrawal date. Withdrawal dates are published online and in the Credit Class Schedule each term. Submission of an appeal does not guarantee automatic approval. Approvals are generally granted only once. Repeated requests are not likely to be granted.

There are three parts to the application process. All parts must be completed before this request will be reviewed including:

1. Completing this form;
2. Attaching a typed letter explaining how circumstances impacted ability to complete coursework, written by the student; and
3. Providing supporting documentation. Relevant documentation may include:
  - A doctor's statement written on physician's letterhead (not a prescription pad) listing medical diagnosis, plan and dates of treatment for the term indicated, and dates the student could not attend classes;
  - Employer's statement on letterhead with specific dates of changes in employment;
  - Instructor and/or counselor's written statement with specific dates, reasons, and additional information to document extenuating circumstances and accommodations made;
  - Police reports and/or other legal documents listing specific dates of incidents; or
  - Any other documentation that would indicate proof of mitigating circumstances.

The Enrollment Center Administrative Appeals Committee will review your appeal and generally will respond within three weeks.

Students who received financial assistance in the term associated with this request may be required to repay financial aid funds.

Any financial aid bookstore vouchers must be repaid and cannot be waived.
