Continuing Education Noncredit Classes

Tuition and Fees

Enrollment Information - Enrollment in Alliance for Lifelong Learning classes is limited to adults 18 years of age or older except for Youth, GED and high school completion classes, which enroll younger students in accordance with each program's specific age requirements.

Tuition - Tuition and fees are as low as operating costs and state law permits and are subject to change without notice. Tuition is the same for both in- and out-of-district residents, and does not include the cost of textbooks or materials. Personal checks are accepted. When providing a check as payment, you authorize the college to either use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. A $25 fee will be applied if your check is returned by the bank.

Processing Fee - Registrants will be charged a $9 non-refundable processing fee at the time of registration. However, students who register online at Oakton's web site will only be charged once per semester for an unlimited number of classes. Those registering in person, by mail, or by fax will be charged a $9 fee with each registration form.

Cancellation Policy - If the Alliance cancels a class, registered students will receive a 100 percent tuition refund.

Refund Policy - If a student wishes to drop a class, a 100 percent tuition refund minus a $15 cancellation fee will be issued if the student notifies the Alliance office at least five business days prior to the first class session. No refunds will be issued for requests received less than five business days before the start of class unless authorized at the discretion of the Alliance administrators.

Residency (In-district Senior Citizens) - Residents of Oakton's district who are 60 years or older are eligible to receive a senior discount on tuition (unless otherwise indicated). In-district seniors (60+) who register for an Alliance class on or after July 7, 2014 are eligible for a 15 percent tuition discount. In-district seniors who registered before that date will continue to receive a 50 percent discount where applicable. Proof of age and in-district residency must be provided in-person prior to registration.

Acceptable documentation includes: a valid Illinois driver's license or Illinois state ID; or two current bank statements or utility bills. Residency is required 30 days immediately prior to the beginning of the term. Additional proof may be requested at the discretion of the college.

Residents of Oakton's district who are 65 or older whose annual household income is less than the threshold amount provided in Section 4 of the "Senior Citizens and Disabled Persons Property Tax Relief and Pharmaceutical Assistant Act" may enroll without payment of tuition in regularly scheduled "A" coded (i.e. TEC A19-01) courses provided that available classroom space exists and tuition paying students enrolled constitute the minimum number required for the course. Proof of age and a signed declaration of annual income are required at the time of registration. Completion of a waiver request form is necessary with each registration.

General Information

Enrollment Verification - The Alliance does not send confirmation of enrollment. To verify enrollment, go to www.oakton.edu/conted and select How to Register.

Textbooks - Textbooks and materials are required for many classes. Costs for these items are not included in the tuition listed. If your classes are at a high school, we recommend that you arrive at least 30 minutes prior to the first class to purchase textbooks at the Alliance site office. Alliance textbooks are not available at the Oakton Community College bookstores.

Note: Personal checks and credit cards are not accepted.

All information, including fees, is subject to change.

Students with Disabilities - The Access and Disability Resource Center provides accommodations and services to college able students with documented disabilities. For information, call 847-635-1759 (Room 2400 Des Plaines campus)

Smoking Policy - No smoking is allowed at the Des Plaines and Skokie campus. At each individual site and class location, Alliance for Lifelong Learning students are required to adhere to the specific building policies.

Certificates - Certificates of completion are awarded to students in any Alliance class upon request of the instructor or student. Completion of classes is determined by instructors, with a minimum of 75 percent attendance in most programs.

Grading - Grades of "P" or "F" are issued to indicate successful completion or non-completion of a course. These grades do not compute in a grade point average.

Alert!Oakton - Receive notification about weather-related and emergency closings at Oakton. Sign up today for e-mail, text message, or voicemail alerts at my.oakton.edu. Instructions are on the home tab.

AARP Smart Driver Course

The AARP Smart Driver™ course is the nation's first and largest refresher course for drivers age 50 and older. AARP Smart Driver Course has given millions of drivers the skills and tools they need to drive safely, allowing them to remain independent. Ninety-seven percent of participants change at least one form of driving behavior after completing the course. And the best part—there are no tests to pass—just useful information to keep drivers safe on the road.

CHICAGO BOTANIC GARDEN

Senior discount does not apply.

New! Oaks, Elms, and Beeches: A Natural History

Fee: $149

Oak, elm, and beech trees once dominated the Midwestern forests and our imaginations. From pre-settlement to today, discover the many ways humans, birds, animals, and insects have used and treasured these trees. We will examine where they are found in nature, and their myriad uses in folklore, stories, and faunal partnerships. We'll also look at species and cultivars available in the Chicago area today. A garden walk will be included.

BOT E61-01, GARD, 3 Tue., 8/7-8/21, 9:30 am-12 pm

CRN 60072

Fall Garden Care

Fee: $39

Proper garden care in the fall helps ensure healthy plants the next spring. Learn techniques for taking care of your lawn, trees, shrubs, and perennials, including fall fertilizing, mulching, cutting back plants, and protecting plants from winter winds and animal damage. Pointers will be given for fall planting of woody plants and spring flowering bulbs.

New! Gardening for Aging Adults

Fee: $29

Studies show that being outside, in nature, or even viewing a well maintained landscape can have positive mental and physical effects. Too often as we age, limitations in strength, mobility, and stamina can reduce our enjoyment of our yards and gardens. Join us for some ideas to extend your garden enjoyment for years to come and adapt your landscape to become more hospitable to the elderly.

BOT E47-01, GARD, 1 Tue., 8/28, 6:30-8 pm

CRN 60069

New! Color in the Autumn Landscape

Fee: $349

Capture the fleeting colors of autumn. Learn how painters think about color in nature. Review color and light to help you see color in a new, exciting way. We will utilize various techniques to break through the limitations of local color in representing the landscape. Students will create small paintings in the medium of their choice, including gouache, acrylic, watercolor, and oil. Color drawing materials such as pastel and colored pencils are also welcome. Group discussion and examples from art history will augment the class.

BOT E45-01, GARD, 6 Thu., 9/6-10/11, 1-4 pm

CRN 60070

Ferns for the Chicago Region

Fee: $64

One of the most elegant and useful landscape plants is the fern. Most gardeners don't realize there are a large number of hardy species and an enormous variety of garden cultivars in a myriad of sizes, forms, and textures in the Chicago area. Also, some fern mutations provide fascinating deviations in frond shape; you will be amazed at the forms. Join us to expand your impressions of ferns in your garden design!

Unspeakable Images - Race and Ethnicity in American Film

Fee: $68

Early Hollywood, not known for authentic portrayals of racial and ethnic stories, still had "hidden" stories, eventually embodying those ethnicities. We will examine this arc, through portions of selected films, exploring that emergence. Films to be explored include Shall We Dance by Mark Sandrich with Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, Scarface by Howard Hawks with Paul Muni, Do The Right Thing by Spike Lee with Danny Aiello, Ossie Davis, and Rosie Perez, Yentl by Barbra Streisand with Streisand and Mandy Patinkin, Winter's Bone by Deborah Granik with Jennifer Lawrence, and more. Join David Y. Chack, long-time Oakton Emeritus instructor, and professor in Jewish theater and Holocaust theater/performance at DePaul University's Theatre School.

History and Philosophy

John Hick's An Interpretation of Religion

Fee: $150

In An Interpretation of Religion, John Hick, an English philosopher of religion, explored in rich but "reader friendly" terms the entire gamut of the present major world religions as well as secular ideologies. He compared and contrasted essentially all of the major philosophical issues in these systems. His approach was respectful and balanced, both regarding his interfacing of religions and his consideration of "naturalistic" approaches to reality. Join Emeritus teacher Douglas Gillette, M.A.R.S., M-Div. for a thoughtful romp through the major thought-worlds of human religions. No class 11/22.

Apes to Angels: The Drag of Human Nature on Our Striving for Transcendence

Fee: $150

Ever wonder why human beings find it so difficult to rise above our animal instincts, regarding both our individual lives and our society? We will explore such fields as psychology, sociology, anthropology, history, and primate ethology in a quest to understand ourselves as immensely complex and sophisticated animals who, nonetheless, aspire to transcend our animal natures. Join Douglas Gillette, M.A.R.S., M-Div., for an adventure into ourselves! No class 11/23.

Those “Little” Books: Second Fiddle to Paul?

Fee: $96

The New Testament letters of James, Peter, John, and Jude are often overlooked because of the emphasis on the Pauline letters. These “little” books offer a wealth of understanding as to the growth of the church and the development of theology. They raise fascinating questions about Biblical interpretation, but their place in the New Testament canon has often been challenged. Join Jim Dunlap, M.Div., as he explores the historical and interpretive issues they raise.

PHL E31-61, OC/SK, 5 Thu., 10/18-11/15, 1-2:30 pm CRN 60021

The Civil War

Fee: $79

Abraham Lincoln famously prophesized “I believe this government cannot endure permanently, half slave, half free.” The Civil War was fought to determine how it would endure. West Point classmates killed each other. War crimes were committed on both sides. New weapons were invented to make killing more efficient. Generals from European countries traveled with the Blue and the Gray to learn new tactics. Over 620,000 Americans died, and at the end of forty-nine months, the country emerged as a very different place. Please join Professor Gary Midkiff, M.B.A., for a fascinating and dramatic review of the Civil War, including videos, maps, charts, and his extensive collection of Civil War memorabilia.

No senior discount.

Humanities

A Renaissance of Jewish Plays

Fee: $119

Jewish Theatre is resurging. In its March 2018 issue, American Theatre Magazine wrote how the new Jewish plays reflect multiculturalism by the longstanding “outsider” in world culture. Join David Y. Chack, long-time Oakton Emeritus instructor and professor in Jewish theater and Holocaust theater/performance at DePaul University’s Theatre School, in an exploration of Jewish culture and the world we live in today — through history, context, and script analysis. Plays include God of Vengeance by Sholom Asch, Indecent by Paula Vogel (Victory Garden, Fall 2018); A Shayne Maidel (Timeline, Fall 2018); A Jewish Joke (Skokie Theatre, 2017; Victory Garden, 2016); The Green Book (Pegasus Theatre, Spring 2018), and more.

Ulysses: An Unforgettable Literary Voyage

Fee: $196

James Joyce’s Ulysses is arguably the greatest novel ever written in the English language. On the surface, it is primarily a story of Irishmen Leopold Bloom and Stephen Dedalus and their travels and travails through Dublin and its environs during the day and evening of June 16, 1904. The reader soon recognizes the genius of Joyce through the novel’s fantastic dialogue and cascading narrative. The marvelous cast of characters leaps forward out of Joyce’s unbridled imagination. Join Richard Reeder, M.A., as he once again guides Emeritus students through this often daunting, but transformative and unforgettable literary voyage in the reading and studying of Ulysses.

Levi Strauss, the Gold Rush, and the World's Most Famous Pair of Pants!

Everybody loves them; everybody wears them. Jeans are no doubt an iconic garment, and they tell the legendary story of the American West. But did you know that they were made world famous by an adventurous Bavarian Jew who combined his marvelous business sense with German ingenuity? Join German Historian Anette Isaacs, M.A., for a fascinating journey into the days of the Gold Rush and learn about Levi Strauss and his amazing life.

Tuesday, September 18

Dust Bowl

Winds from the fertile midsection of the United States took good soil that had been punished by drought and improperly protected and blew it into the air where it formed huge roiling clouds that darkened skies all the way to the Atlantic Ocean. Thousands of farmers watched their farms vanish on the wind and headed west in the hope of a new start, but they were met with hate and viciousness and told to go back where they came from. Join Gary Midkiff, M.B.A., for an investigation of this period of economic and social upheaval.

Tuesday, September 25

We Love Lucy

Join Steven Frenzel and spend time with The First Lady of Television, the very funny and brave Lucille Ball. Learn her fascinating journey from shy performer to comedy superstar and see just how Lucille became Lucy. View her first nervous times on film, as well as the movie that finally allowed her to use all her gifts. All along the way, we'll also be featuring many of the greatest and funniest moments from I Love Lucy, one of the most beloved and popular shows in television history.

Origins of the 2nd Amendment: The Right to Bear Arms

The Second Amendment to the United States Constitution, the right to bear arms, is a continued focus of intense debate. Join Joyce Haworth in this (non-partisan) session that focuses on the history behind this amendment, the norms of weapon ownership and use in the 18th century, the opinions of the Founders about the presence of guns in society, and state-based weapons regulations in the early Republic.

Emily Post and Her Experiences in Illinois

Join Kay Shelton as she talks about how Emily Post became famous as the foremost expert on etiquette. Post took a cross-country trip in 1915 from New York to San Francisco to visit the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. Along the way, she made several stops in Illinois, voluntarily for sight-seeing and involuntarily due to muddy road conditions outside Chicago. Post wrote about her experiences for Collier's Weekly and its rising star advertising manager, Condé Montrose Nast, who she convinced to fund her cross-country adventures.

Round the World on a Penny

Anita Willets Burnham was an artist, author, and visionary who boldly took her family of five around the world, twice, in the 1920's. They went third class, she said, "only because there wasn't a fourth." After years of encouragement from friends and her art students, she wrote a book about their adventures and launched herself into the lecture circuit to promote it. Join Ellie Carlson, M.S., as Mrs. Burnham who met a man who invented a time machine. In exchange for her painting portraits of his family. He sends her forward to this Passages lecture.

Laughing Matters - Jewish Humor as a Means for Survival

Looking at a treasure of irresistible jokes and performances in film, television, and popular entertainment, we'll examine major themes in how humor is an expression of Jewish identity, history, outlook, and life. Ultimately, the course demonstrates that the most resonant Jewish jokes are deeply revealing sign posts on journey of survival. Come laugh with David Y. Chack, long-time Oakton Emeritus instructor and professor in Jewish theater and Holocaust theater/performance at DePaul University's Theatre School.

Lost Restaurants of Chicago

Take a trip down memory lane with popular speaker, local historian, and author Greg Borzo presenting Chicago's most notable restaurants that have come and gone. We will discuss more than 60 top spots including Frizzel's, Chez Paree, Cafe Bohemia, Hot Doug's, the Cloud Room, and El Bianco's. Restaurants have a lot to say about Chicago culture and history. Come see and hear their stories which touch on ethnic groups and neighborhood identities, heated politics and fascinating personalities, movie stars and celebrity chefs. Discover restaurant lore and relive culinary legends.

Fred and Ginger: Dancing Through the Depression

Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers provided much-needed escapism for movie-goers during the hard times of the 1930s. In the process of making 10 movies together, the iconic dancers dazzled audiences with their inventive flair and revolutionized the musical film genre. Their comic timing, their quick-witted chemistry, and their sheer perfection as dancing partners made them a magnetic onscreen couple. But did they have a good relationship? Join Doug Deuchler, M.A., as he explores the pair during a fascinating era of film history.

Chicago's Mayors

Over the last one hundred years, Chicago's mayors have ranged from the flamboyant to the prosaic; from the forgettable to the memorable. Join Richard Reeder, M.A., who served in the administration of three of these mayors, to discuss this varied array of Chicago's chief elected officers from William Hale Thompson in 1915 through the current governance of Rahm Emanuel. We will look at their accomplishments and failures, analyzing how their policies shaped the Chicago of today.

The Crisis of Neoliberalism and the Rise of Xenophobic Nationalism

Over the past several years the “neoliberal” model of free trade, global integration, and democratic governance has been challenged by the rise of xenophobic nationalism, authoritarianism, and anti-immigrant sentiment. Join Peter Hudis, Ph.D., as he explains this development—which is evident from the U.S. to Poland and from Italy to China—and what does it suggest about the future of “free market” capitalism?

Major Supreme Court Decisions in 2017-2018

The 2017-2018 Supreme Court term was an eventful one. This class will cover some of the most important cases of the term. We will discuss the gerrymandering case the court heard in October, as well as the case concerning wedding services for same-sex couples. We will also examine cases that address issues concerning the purging of voter rolls, the search and seizure of cell phone records, and the compelled financial support of public unions. Don't miss this opportunity to explore this topic with Julie Strauss, Ph.D.

Bolivia under Evo Morales: Movement Toward Socialism or Merely Managing Neoliberal Capitalism?

Evo Morales made history in 2006 when he became the first indigenous president of Bolivia. As leader of the Movement toward Socialism (MAS) party, his administration has focused on the implementation of leftist policies, poverty reduction, and combating the influence of the United States and multinational corporations in Bolivia. However, more than a decade later, there remains debate Morales' success at moving Bolivia away from neoliberal economic policies and implementing some of his more radical promises. Join Paul Gulezian, Ph.D., in his talk about the recent political, economic, cultural, and environmental developments in Bolivia and pose the question, “Has Bolivia been successful at charting a fundamentally different course from the standard development models of neoliberal capitalism?”

The Rise of Nationalism Since 2014

European countries and the United States have witnessed a resurgence in nationalism (and identity politics) in the last few years. Why? What has changed in the social fabric of so many countries at roughly the same time? Is this a short-term phase or a new direction? If it is a new direction what are the implications for international relations, international trade, and foreign policy? Please join Professor Gary Midkiff, M.B.A., for an examination of this subject.

Update on the Middle East

The Middle East is seemingly in a constant state of change and instability. This lecture by Oakton Professor Toufic el Rassi will give a brief update on the current state of affairs in the region, discussing the most recent events in the news while also giving a brief historical context. Topics may include the Israeli/Palestinian conflict, Iran's nuclear program and influence in the region, and the Syrian civil war.

Why Liberal World Order Failed

With the end of the Cold War and the disintegration of the Soviet Union, many keen observers of international politics believed that history too was coming to an end ushering in an expanding and enduring liberal world order. Almost three decades later, it has become clear that the lofty hopes of global integration and order have given way to the realization that the world is not coming together but coming apart. What went wrong? Join Oakton political science professor George Lungu, M.A., in a discussion of the demise of the liberal world order and what comes next.

Ending the Court Wars

Since the 1980s, increasing partisan battles over court appointments have characterized American judicial politics. The biggest problem is the provision that justices be granted lifetime tenure according to the U.S. Constitution. David Faris, Ph.D., will discuss plans for a Constitutional amendment to alter America's judicial appointment practices, as well as reforms that could be implemented without amendment. Such reforms would guarantee each president the right to nominate two Supreme Court appointments per four-year term, and to regularize appointments to an expanded federal judiciary. This proposal would reduce partisan temperatures around these appointments and dial back destructive tensions between the parties over the courts.

The American Vice President: From Insignificance to Prominence

Join William Adler, Ph.D., to explore the development of the American vice presidency, from John Adams to Mike Pence. We will investigate how this constitutional afterthought has become a locus of power in the modern age. Especially since Jimmy Carter's selection of Walter Mondale, presidents have found it increasingly in their interest to provide their vice presidents with important functions that benefit their presidencies as well as their political parties.

Revisiting the Refugee Crisis in Germany Three Years Later!

The world looked at Germany incredulously when, in the summer of 2015, Chancellor Merkel opened up the borders and let over one-million refugees and asylum seekers into the country. Equipped with a sturdy social net and a pressing moral obligation to help those in need, Germany seemed to be a new promised land for many of the refugees. However, what has happened since? Join German historian and political scientist Anette Isaacs, M.A., for an update on the successes and challenges that evolved from Chancellor Merkel's fateful decision.

The Great Delusion: Liberal Dreams and International Realities

Professor John Mearsheimer, Ph.D. will talk about his new book from Yale University Press. He argues that "liberal hegemony," the foreign policy pursued by the United States since the Cold War ended, was doomed to fail. It makes far more sense, he maintains, for Washington to adopt a more restrained foreign policy based on a sound understanding of how nationalism and realism constrain great powers abroad. It is widely believed in the West that the United States should spread liberal democracy across the world, foster an open international economy, and build institutions. This policy of remaking the world in America's image is supposed to protect human rights, promote peace, and make the world safe for democracy. But this is not what happened. Instead, the United States ended up as a highly militarized state fighting wars that undermine peace, harm human rights, and threaten liberal values at home.
